Steve Lutz*

Well, the harvest is in and the peaches are canned, glowing in the quart bottles lining my pantry shelves. My thoughts are turning to winter snow and as soon as I finish writing, I'll be splitting firewood to keep us warm out here in the clear-sky country, far from the polluted air of the Wasatch front. I rarely make it into the Salt Lake Valley but the November Local Concert on Friday the 1st at 7:30 pm tempts me to make the 3 1/2 hour trek to the South Valley Unitarian Church at 6876 South Highland Dr. Michael Feldman and Basin & Grange will provide music that will warm your heart and soul like a pile of this wood I've been splitting, without the sweat.

Michael Feldman, a medicinal chemist by training, came to Utah in 2000 to help set up the drug testing for the 2002 SLC Olympic Winter Games and to become General Manager of Northwest Toxicology Laboratories.

After running and selling 2 biotech companies, in 2011, he and his family decided it was time to do something completely different. Missing the food from New Jersey, he and his wife Janet planned and built Feldman's Deli, Utah's only authentic Jewish Deli, featuring a variety of traditional sandwiches and European/Old World specialties. He serves as Chief Everything Officer. But food wasn't enough so they regularly move aside tables and have local musicians add even more to the friendly ambience. You can occasionally catch him playing his music at the Deli or other venues as the "DeliMan".

Mike writes songs about his world travels, and unique perspective on what life brings to all of us. His covers include those songs that make you contemplate the egocentric nature of an arbitrary universe. His repertoire covers blues, ballads and bawdy songs...always looking to entertain.

Joining Michael on stage will be one of Salt Lake's finest and most loved musical pairs, Pat & Roy.

Hailing from New York City, Pat Tortoricci performed in many clubs, and toured with both the American Tap Dance Orchestra as the featured vocalist, and with the musical rock show Shindig! Roy Mathews comes from Little Rock, Arkansas, where he toured with and sang for the gospel group Dunamis. He also holds multiple honorable mentions and top placements in singer/songwriting contests.

Basin & Grange includes Bill Moore (bass, mandolin, vocals), Jonah Schupbach (guitar, vocals), Mark Smith (dobro, bass, vocals), and Arthur Turlak (banjo).

These four friends share a love for traditional bluegrass and old-time melodies, along with the creative spirit for taking this music in new directions. This combination of innovation and conservation inspires the band's name. "Basin and Grange" evokes the vast and beautiful region of the American West (the Basin & Range), home to the band members, and a symbol of exploration and freedom. "Range" is playfully adapted to "Grange", calling to mind the country roots of this group's music.

Basin & Grange

Free pre-LCS concert mandolin workshop!!

Do you have a mandolin? Have you been wanting some ideas about how to start learning it or have you been playing for forever and would like some new ideas? Either way, join Peter Danzig on Friday, November 1 at 6:00 PM for a FREE mandolin workshop. Pete grew up playing the violin and viola. In high school he picked up the guitar. It wasn't until he was in his 30's he started learning the mandolin. He practiced hard and became a Utah State Mandolin

Champion (2011) and then went on to take 2nd Place at the National Mandolin Competition (2011) at Winfield, Kansas. As an experienced teacher, performer, innovative songwriter and someone who was largely self-taught on the mandolin, he has something to share with anyone who loves the mandolin! The workshop will be held in the basement of South Valley Unitarian Church prior to the Local Concert Series.

The Intermountain Acoustic Music Association thanks the voters of Salt Lake County for their support of the Zoo, Arts & Parks program. One-tenth of one percent of the Salt Lake County sales tax goes to support local cultural, botanical, and zoological organizations. This funding has not only stabilized many of Salt Lake's cultural organizations, but has also funded the construction of new recreational facilities, and improved walking trails. ZAP funding helps to provide "free" days, free concerts, and reduced ticket prices for students.
