Murray Park Labor Day Concert

The Grey Hounds play Bluegrass music - sometimes classic, sometimes progressive, sometimes sideways, but always steeped in Bluegrass tradition. Bill Monroe, the Father of Bluegrass Music, is reputed to have said "Bluegrass has brought more people together and made more friends than any music in the world." The Grey Hounds take this idea to heart - they play because they love the music, and they love playing music with friends, both new and old. Bluegrass is a uniquely American musical form, and although they are a long way from the bluegrass hills of Kentucky, the echos of the Appalachian mountains can be heard even in our Wasatch range.

The band consists of Erik Brunvand (bass/mandolin), Sandy Brunvand (mandolin/guitar), JD Frederick (banjo/dojo), and Bill Thomas (guitar/bass) with all band members contributing to the singing.

Matt Seabury is an amazing guitarist, a former USIC fingerstyle champion. He also plays bass for the uber-talented group The Lazlos. Matt is magic on the guitar. You will be amazed by the depth of talent he displays as he plucks out intricate melodies with the ease of decades of dedication.

Anke Summerhill is a long time fixture in the SLC acoustic music scene. Dirty Lenin Magazine described her music this way: "Quiet and reflective, but with an inner magic, Summerhill's songwriting has a maturity not usually found in a new artist." She has been a songwriter and vocalist since her high school days, and after performing around the country landed in SLC in 1985.

In Memorium

Bill Woolf, luthier extraordinaire, gifted guitar slinger and a mainstay in the Utah music scene for almost 50 years, died unexpectedly last April. Prior to his death, he had accumulated an extraordinary assortment of guitar-building and repair tools.

Woolf's estate is now offering this collection for sale. Although it would prefer to sell all of the items together to an experienced or budding builder, the estate's personal representative will consider selling some items separately. The estate would consider donating items to non-profits that are interested in promoting the art and craft of guitar repair and building.

For more information, contact Steve Lutz at 801-376-2027 or at dobrosteve@gmail.com

The Intermountain Acoustic Music Association thanks the voters of Salt Lake County for their support of the Zoo, Arts & Parks program. One-tenth of one percent of the Salt Lake County sales tax goes to support local cultural, botanical, and zoological organizations. This funding has not only stabilized many of Salt Lake's cultural organizations, but has also funded the construction of new recreational facilities, and improved walking trails. ZAP funding helps to provide "free" days, free concerts, and reduced ticket prices for students.

Is proud to support local acoustic music! We feature.
