March
Local Concert Series
by
Steve Lutz

During this last year I had one of the greatest revelations of my life. I found out through DNA testing that I am 85% Scots Irish. I was adopted to a mostly English-German-Polish family but somehow I always felt Celtic. Just before having the privilege of discovering my birth family and the hordes of clan McCourt, I read Leon Uris great historical novel Trinity. Through that I learned of the hardships of the great famine, the horrible suppression of Celtic culture at the hands of the English aristocracy, and birth of the Irish Republican movement. Since then I have let my wild Celtic roots prevail. I think I'll list myself on the next census as East Atlantic Islander. If you are moved by the soulful uilleann pipes and start to dance when you feel the beat of the bodhran, maybe, like me, you have some of that DNA deep in your bones.

In March, as we celebrate the legend of St. Patrick, we all become a little bit Celtic and there is no better way to free those juices than with a night of wild, free Celtic music on March 1st at 7:30 at the South Valley Unitarian Church, 6875 So. Highland Dr. On this joyous night all can revel, (even those descended from blueblood of the occupiers), IAMA members need less than the cost of a good sack of potatoes, only $7, and all can free their souls under the spell of Pennyland and Shanahy, two of the best Celtic bands ever assembled on this side of the Atlantic.

Pennyland (peighinn in Scottish Gaelic) is the Anglicization of an antiquated crofter's land measurement. Peighinn (pronounced 'pain') was the amount of land a Scottish tenant farmer could rent for one penny a month. The band's name, in part a tribute to the ancestral tenant farmers of Scotland, recalls the workaday lives of crofters who dreamt of better opportunities, uprooted their families and crossed the Atlantic to settle in a new world. Formerly known as Annie's Romance, the band has been performing traditional Scottish, Cape Breton, and Irish folk music since 2012. Their music is at once both fresh and nostalgic. Their inventive and highly listenable arrangements of English and Gaelic songs, as well as dance tunes, pays tribute to the great Scottish and Irish folk bands of the 1970's such as Ossian, Planxty, Boys of the Lough, and The Chieftains. Pennyland is a regular performer at various festivals along the Wasatch front and have been heard on local radio stations KRCL and BYU Radio. They have performed at festivals alongside the Wicked Tinkers, Skipper's Alley, and The Young Irishlanders, as well as many great local bands.

The Celtic band Shanahy is one of the longest-running music groups in the Intermountain region, having performed together for about 20 years. The group performs traditional songs and tunes from the British Isles--primarily Scotland and Ireland. Including some of our region's award-winning musicians, members of the group are Kate MacLeod, Andrew Morrill, Bronwen Beecher, and Mark Hazel. The special Shanahy sound features fiddles, highland pipes, cauldwind pipes, uilleann (Irish) pipes, whistle, flute, bodhran, guitars, and vocals. Shanahy performs traditional jigs, slip-jigs, reels, strathspeys, waltzes, airs and songs, along with a few contemporary and original pieces within the Celtic style. Shanahy has released three CDs, Trip to Ballymena, Far Away and A Fair Land Lies Before Me. Because of the individual careers of the band's members, this group only performs in the region on very special occasions.

Free Harmonica Workshop!

Have you always wanted to learn the harmonica or add to the harp skills you already have? Then do not miss the FREE IAMA Workshop on Friday, March 1st at 6:00 PM at South Valley Unitarian Universalist Society (6876 S. Highland Drive) preceding the Local Concert Series. Steve Lewis, one of the finest harmonica players around, will be teaching. He will craft the workshop to the level and interest of those in attendance (including beginners). Topics will include: beginning your journey with the harmonica, how Steve learned blues harmonica, how to play off of others and how to branch into different genres of music. Bring a C harmonica and prepare to have fun!! Steve is teaching the class for free. Generous tips for the instructor are encouraged, but your presence is more important. Feel free to contact Mary Danzig at mdanzig@hotmail.com with questions.

March 2019 Hosted Coffeehouse by Dale Sandburg

25 years ago Guy Benson asked for volunteers for the hosted coffeehouse. Mary and I had been going to the coffeehouse for a year and so we volunteered.

We invited some people we knew and had played music with: Jim and Janet Witherspoon, Holly Vincent, Leraine Horstmanhoff, ourselves and a few other people we had seen before at the coffeehouse. We had fun, but come November we went to Carla and Dave Eskelson's show and were blown away! They brought in people they wanted to hear. These guys knew how to do it right, and that is what we wanted to do. We have been fortunate enough to have some of the best players, singe/songwriters in the area play for us.

This year we have put together as good a group as any coffeehouse in our past. We have Sycamore Slim, a great blues guitarist who played at the Local Concert Series earlier this year; Jesse Thurgood, a great singer/songwriter; The Red Desert Ramblers, one of the hardest working bands in the area; The Buckle Busters, one of our favorites; and ending with J. T. Draper and Kelly Bellerose. So keep Friday, March 22nd open and join us at the First Unitarian Church. The show starts at 7:30. Also, a great big thanks to our fearless leader Guy Benson for doing great sound for such a long time!

The Intermountain Acoustic Music Association thanks the voters of Salt Lake County for their support of the Zoo, Arts & Parks program. One-tenth of one percent of the Salt Lake County sales tax goes to support local cultural, botanical, and zoological organizations. This funding has not only stabilized many of Salt Lake's cultural organizations, but has also funded the construction of new recreational facilities, and improved walking trails. ZAP funding helps to provide "free" days, free concerts, and reduced ticket prices for students.
